Message: Dear Sir: After speaking with Anthony Williams, he requested that I send you the following letter with statement from Miami Dade County. I have sent several letters to Miami-Dade County concerning this situation and the fact that we were billed over and above the contracted price an additional $10,359.60. No one has communicated in any way other than to continue to send past due notices with a demand for payment.

I hope that you enjoyed your holidays and that the New Year will be filled with Success and Prosperity!

Final Settlement Report

Dear Orlando:

Thank you for meeting with me today. I also offer the collective thanks of the Miss Florida Organization for the assistance of you and your staff during both the 2005 and 2006 pageant.

I was somewhat shocked today at the 2006 Final Settlement Report. In comparing the 2005 & 2006 reports, I noted some similarities and differences that I would like to discuss.

- 1. The 2005 and 2006 Base Rent (flat fee all included) was $24,000.00, the same for both years.
- 2. The rental tax of $1,680.00 was the same for both years.
- 3. In 2005 there was no ticket sales tax charged. In 2006 the ticket sales tax charged was $5,894.60.
- 4. The Surcharge in 2005 was $2,636.00. The Surcharge in 2006 was $2.878.00. a difference of $242.00.
- 5. The PBO receipts in 2005 were $17,377.00; the PBO receipts in 2006 were $14,093.00, a difference of $3,284.00.
- 6. The deposit in 2005 was $12,000; the deposit in 2006 was $10,000.
- In 2005 the Miss Florida Pageant received a check from Miami Dade County for $1,061.00.
- 8. In 2006, the Miss Florida Pageant owes Miami Dade County $10,359.60.

Bottom line: The Miami Dade County Auditorium cost the 2006 Miss Florida Pageant $35, 359.60, an increase of $11,359.60 over 2005.

As a not for profit scholarship organization, volunteers work year around to produce a pageant for the young women of Florida. Countless hours, weeks, months are spent raising the much needed donations and sponsorships to fund the pageant. This does not include the contribution of personal funds of many of our Board of Directors, all volunteers, affiliated with the Miss Florida Pageant. Their efforts make it possible for the young women of our state to compete for scholarship dollars to help advance their education.

The Miami Dade County Auditorium possesses much nostalgia for the area. Unfortunately the nostalgia can't erase the ceiling leaks that filled large trashcans with water backstage on our final day and the power surges that shorted out the equipment. Complaints that the air conditioning was turned off backstage during our final show were echoed by our staff and parents alike. The overall decay of the backstage area and the entire facility makes it difficult to breathe new life in to an event held there although we desperately tried! I went online to pull up the schedule of the Miami Dade County Auditorium and found very few events booked for the next 3 months, and nothing longer than two days as most were one day events. One could wonder why the auditorium isn't more widely utilized by the community.

I discussed with you today the fact that there was no facility in Miami Dade County that was affordable for a non profit organization. You shared how you work and partner with non profit organizations that book with the Miami Dade County Auditorium. I am trying to figure out how to justify to our Board of Directors that in addition to the $24,000 flat rate rental for 4 days, we now owe another $10,359.60 for a facility that is outdated and that its day has passed. At an average charge of $8,883.90 per day, it would appear that a partnership comes at a high price for the Miss Florida Pageant & the Miami Dade County Auditorium. I am not including move-in day as one of the four days since there is no performance on that day.

I will bring the 2005 and 2006 settlement reports for comparison purposes to our Executive Board Meeting next week in Orlando. You said that we had 30 days in which to pay the balance and I assume that the 30 days begins to toll from today, August 10, 2006. We will also discuss the 2007 Pageant but under these circumstances, I can honestly tell you that the Miss Florida Pageant cannot afford the Miami Dade County Auditorium. An increase of almost $12,000 in one year among other factors prohibits us from such consideration.

You seemed quite optimistic today that the MDA was going to acquire funding to update and improve the facility. I hope this happens as your affinity for the facility is genuine and Miami Dade County is very fortunate to have you and your professional and capable staff operating their facility. Please invite us to the re grand opening!

I ask that you send this letter to Vice Chairman Commissioner Dennis Moss in care of the Dade County Board of Commissioners. He personally attended the pageant and addressed the attendees. I took the opportunity to speak with him regarding the conditions of the auditorium at that time and pointed out some of our problems. I believe that he would be our best contact to address these problems and reach a mutually agreeable solution to the problem.

- 4. Waiver of additional amount charged over and above the contracted fee of $24,24,452.60 previously paid by the Miss Florida Scholarship Pageant see attached bill for $10,359.60
- 5. Miss Florida Pageant, Miami Dade County Auditorium, July 05 through July 08, 2006. The Miss Florida Pageant is an official preliminary to the Miss America Pageant. The contestants compete from local pageants held throughout the state. This year 40 Miss Contestants competed for Miss Florida 2006. 35 Teen contestants competed for Miss Florida's Outstanding Teen. The contestants win scholarships for use in their higher education. The Miss Florida Pageant awarded over $72,000 in scholarships for the Miss and Teen contestants. All scholarships are raised by the pageant volunteers. Everyone associated with the Miss Florida Pageant are volunteers who dedicate their time and personal resources to make the pageant possible.
- 6. Economic Development the over 2000 pageant observers contributed to the economic development of the area. Youth/Education The event benefits young ladies between the ages of 13-24 years. Health and Social Services Each participant is required to have a social issue or cause that she promotes that improves quality of life within the community. Arts and Culture Participants must compete in a performing talent thereby supporting music, theatre, performing arts, etc. Sports & Athletics While no particular sport is involved, the contestants must display physical fitness thereby encouraging well being and physical activity.

Subject:

Countywide In-Kind Reserve Request Recommendation

Recommendation

The Office of Strategic Business Management (OSBM) has reviewed the attached in-kind request and recommends for the item to move forward to the Board of County Commissioners for consideration. The countywide in-kind reserve balance allows for the funding of this request.

Background

A retroactive waiver for in-kind services is being requested by a not-for-profit organization Miss Florida Scholarship Pageant Organization for their Miss Florida Pageant held on July 5-8, 2006 at the Miami-Dade County Auditorium.

In-kind services have been requested in an amount not to exceed $10,359.60 from the Park and Recreation Department for waiver of rental fees for the Miami-Dade County Auditorium. This event will be funded from the countywide in-kind reserve fund.

In FY 2006-07 Miss Florida Scholarship Pageant Organization has not received any County funding.
